Mrs. H. L. Smith

No story of Mr. Smith would be complete without some mention of his wife, who through the years has given him the encouragement so necessary to any man's success.

We, the editors, feel that a great deal of credit should go to Mrs. H. L. Smith, both for her aid to her husband and for her constant interest in the school itself.

THE EDITORS.

A Biography...
H. L. SMITH

June 24, 1955, will be a date of special significance for everyone connected with Victoria High School, for it will mark not only the graduation of the current Grade Twelve classes, but also the end of an era for the school itself.

On that day, Mr. H. L. Smith, principal and teacher for forty-one years, will retire.

Since he first came here in 1914, three months after the building was completed, Mr. Smith has become as much a part of Victoria High as the blackboads and the desks. Held in high regard by teachers and students alike, he earned their respect through a policy of discipline tempered with understanding, and by the fact that he never held a grudge.

The Camosun, by way of tribute to Mr. Smith, now publishes a condensed review of his life story, in the hope that it will bring some fond memories of days past, and provide him with an extra remembrance of his final graduation class.

* * * * * *

Henry Lawson Smith first saw the light of day in Charlottetown, P.E.I., on July 12, 1889. He remained in his home town until he entered McGill University. In his early school days he showed promise of the scholastic ability that was to serve him so well in the coming years, as he won the Governor-General's Medal on completing Public School and a Scholarship on entering Prince of Wales College. He was class Valedictorian in his final year.

Another of his talents, his prodigious memory, for which he is famous throughout the school, became apparent at an early age, too; little Harry Smith was well known in Charlottetown for his ability to give recitations. Vic High students fortunate enough to be in his English classes will testify that he has lost none of his power through the years.

Since money was a commodity that was as hard come by in those days as it is today, the young college graduate taught school for two years before entering McGill. He graduated in 1912 with a B.A. Degree, and the Shakespeare Medal prize for English.

But it was not all work and no play at University. Sports played a big part in school life, and Harry Smith, in spite of his heavy studies, proved himself as able with a hockey stick as with a pen. He also starred in track and field, winning the Pole Vault championship two years running.

Nor did he give up his sporting activities when he came to Victoria to teach. He was a standout at right wing on the school hockey team, and also found time to play rugby with J.B.A.A. and the Crimson Tide.

Mr. Smith, during his 41 years at the school, has taught a great many well known people, and the list reads like "Who's Who in Canada," men like Art Chapman, the Patrick brothers, Lynn and Muzz, Bruce Hutchison and many others too numerous to mention.

Even though he had enough teaching experience to do for any three other men, Mr. Smith by no means plans to retire from the field of school activity. Instead, he hopes to go back to straight teaching for a few years. In his spare time, what he has of it, he will continue to work in his vegetable garden, which is his chief source of enjoyment as far as hobbies go. (He has always been a great outdoor man, ever since he bought 30 acres in the Highland District and built himself a log cabin on it.)

There will certainly be no lack of companionship in the Principal's life after retirement. He has five children and eleven grandchildren. All of Mr. Smith's children graduated from Vic High, and all carried on the high tradition of studies set by their father. In fact, Mr. Smith freely admits that his two sons, Peter and Paul, were even better students than he was.

With regard to present day students, Mr. Smith says that they compare favourably with any he had taught, and he has this advice for any of us looking for ways to improve ourselves:

"If you want to find the qualities of a perfect student, study Bacon's Essay on Studies, and follow it carefully."

However, if you cannot do this, you could do no better than to follow the example of another great student:

Mr. H. L. Smith. himself.

Chief Constable.

"Mr. Smith's inspirational leadership during my High School days has been the dominating factor in any success I may have attained."

MUZZ PATRICK,
Manager of New York Rangers.

"No student of Victoria High School has passed through the school without some of the creed of Harry Smith rubbing off on him. That creed was, and still is, "Play the game hard, but at all times play it fair."

BRUCE HUMBER.

"Victorians will always be indebted to Harry Smith, scholar, an athlete, and above all a Christian Gentleman."

Sincerely,
ARCHIE MCKINNON.

Valedictory

WE, the graduating class of 1955, will long remember you, Victoria High School. It was in your familiar halls and classrooms that we learned our first lessons of adult life. You seemed, at first, cold and unfriendly, but as we came to know you better, you won in our hearts a place which will remain forever.

With the conclusion of this year, Victoria High School will feel a very great sense of loss in the retirement of Mr. H. L. Smith, who so well typifies the spirits of justice, leadership, and companionship. We thank you, Mr. Smith, for your efforts to help us, and hope your future will be happy and successful. This is not good-bye, but "au revoir"; the school looks forward to your return to its functions in the future.

Well-deserving of our heartfelt thanks are the members of the staff, who took us by the hand until they felt we could guide ourselves. Their best has been done; the future is now up to us.

None of us knows with certainty where he will be a year from now, but we can and do feel that with the scholastic, athletic, and cultural experience gained at Victoria High School, we are better equipped to face the challenge of the future. We will find in the world, as we did in Victoria High School, that there is, truly, "no reward without effort."

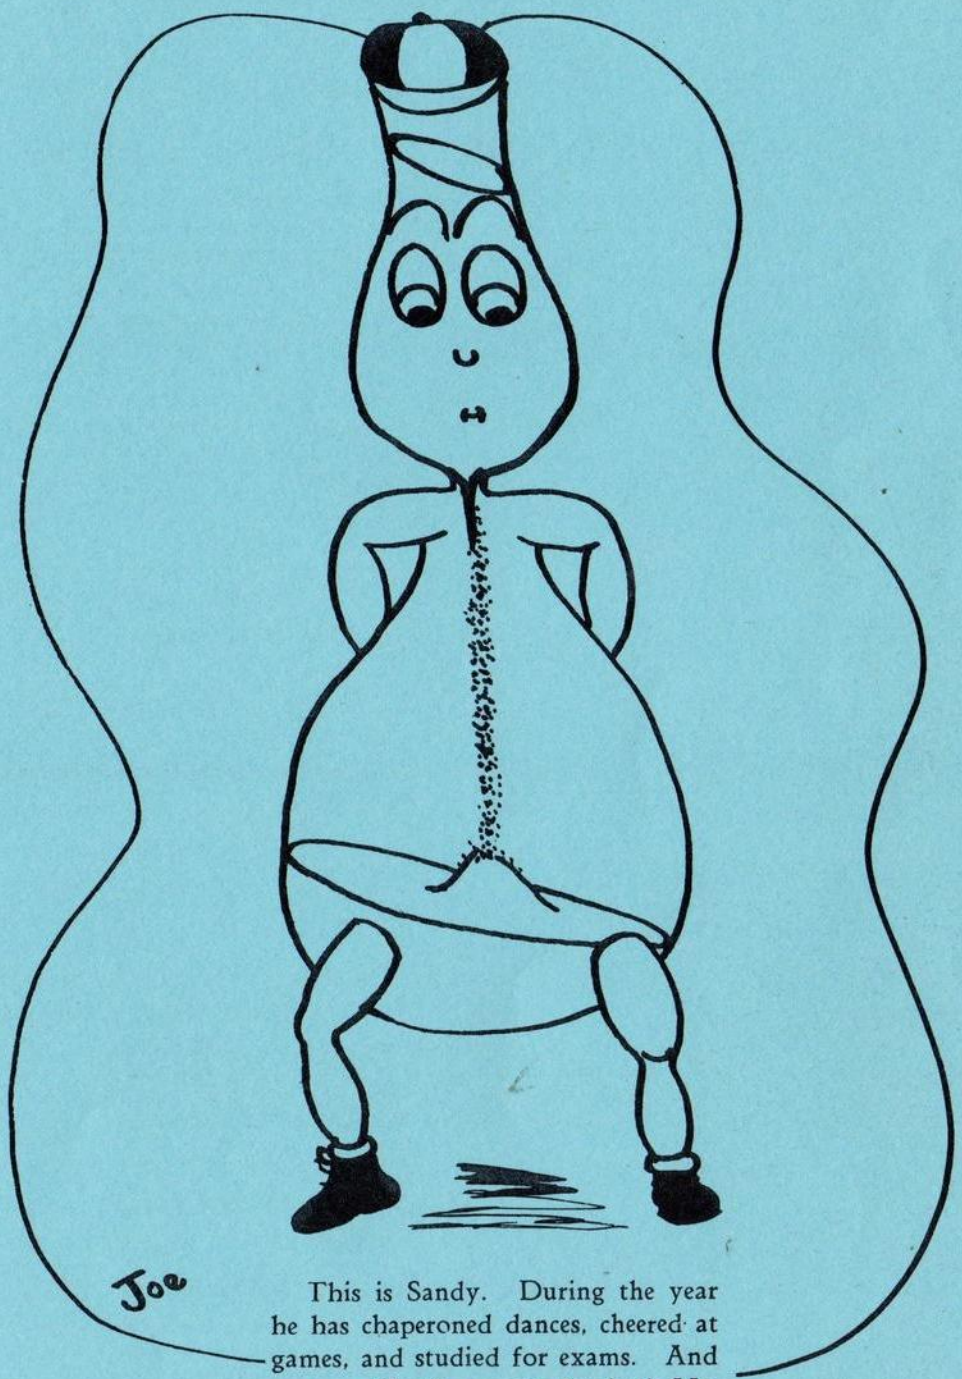
SANDY



Camosun Mascot

This is Sandy. During the year he has chaperoned dances, cheered at games, and studied for exams. And now, as the time nears for both Mr. H. L. Smith and this year's senior students to graduate, the sands of time have ceased running — and nothing but memories remain. The Editors hope that you will join Sandy as he romps through the pages of this book.

Strong, courageous, wise,
With shrewd, good-humoured eyes,
That penetrate and scorn
Petty disguise.

Scholarly, urbane,
Great-hearted, and humane,
For whom no effort yet
Was made in vain.

A teacher gifted, skilled,
With joy and vigour filled,
Whose love of learning that same
Love instilled.

A noted athlete, who,
Himself a sportsman true,
True sportsmanship in others
Fostered, too.

His faith serene, inspired,
Has been a beacon, fired
For all who up the Way
Feel strained, o'er tired.

We cannot over-praise
This man, who, all his days,
Has given his mighty heart
Our hearts to raise.

SO LET OUR CHEERS RING LOUD,
AS, WITH HIS STRENGTH ENDOWED,
WE BID FAREWELL TO A GREAT MAN
WHOM TO SERVE WE HAVE BEEN PROUD.

It's Tradition in the Navy...

STRIKING THE SHIP'S BELL. Back in the days when the half hour glass was used to tell off the four hour watch, it was the duty of the ship's boy to turn the glass each time the sand ran out. To show that he was on the job, he was required to give the ship's bell a resounding ring every time he turned the glass. Later the bell was tolled in increasing numbers as the watch progressed so that one bell denoted the end of the first half hour of the watch, two bells the second half hour and so on until eight bells which signified the end of a four hour watch, just as it does today.

I Think Continually . . .

I think continually of my Vic. High teachers
Who, from the Universities, remembered the world's history;
Its languages of many, where English is but one;
Its mathematics and sciences. Whose fine ambition
Was that their lips, still touched with fire
Should tell of all they knew.
And who hoarded from their learnings
The desire to teach us as best they could.

What is precious is never to forget—
That 'though they may, at times,
Seem heartless and cruel—
They seldom ever really mean it.

So we leave them to stay behind us—
To instill their knowledge in the hearts and minds of others.
And yet, the memory of those who taught us
Of the fundamental facts of learning,
Of toleration, and of thinking with stability on our own,
Lingers with us as we complete the Bridge of Life,
For which they so faithfully have laid the foundation.

DIANE ROSKELLEY.

GRADE ELEVEN

Division 9. A very enthusiastic division is Div. 9. The only objection that our home room teacher, Mr. D. E. Smith could possibly have is that most of this enthusiasm is directed towards extra-curricular activities rather than school work. However, we do excel in a variety of activities, ranging from sports to drama. Senior rugby is perhaps the best represented with such players as John Davies, Bob McKee, and John Booth. While Don Heywood and Bob Brown are playing on the Junior Rep Basketball team, Danny Wong and Barbara Richardson give support through their cheerleading. On the artistic side, we have Jacky Moore who played a leading part in "The Robe." Barry Gough and Don Howorth play in the band. All chapters of the Hi-Y and Y-teens have members from Div. 9. Representing Div. 9 for the Students' Council meetings is Ed McPhillips. Laughs are supplied by Wayne Richardson.

Division 10. Greetings to all ye lowly mortals from the mighty Greek gods, who dwell on Peak 25 upon Mt. Olympus. Omnipotent Zeus (Mr. Hunter), ruleth all lesser gods and maintaineth his might. Nobly assisting our exemplar thou wouldst find Atlas, god of might (Russ Chambers, class-pres.) and Minerva, goddess of music (class-rep., Joanne Dawson). Crowned with a laurel wreath, daughter of Mercury (Diane Price) hath triumphed in the Chariot Races across the sky. King Neptune (Bill Martin), ruleth the aquasphere with sceptre and trident, while Pluto (Barclay Devine), doth reign supreme in the underworld. Daughters of Venus (majorette Irene Jones, class-sec. Ellen Moore and Wendy "Cupid" Harris) have pierced many mortal hearts. Joe "Mars" Frackson, the fiery god of war and thunder, doth cause tumult and wrath. All those who dwell on Peak 25, have enjoyed their brief sojourn upon Mt. Olympus.

Division 11. Meet the H.M.S. Rumsby, so trim in June, and her unique crew, commanded by Captain Thomson. We are kept in motion by Chief Engineer Barb Wallace. On deck we find John Gilliland on his morning run and Robin Farquhar tackling someone very special. Michel Burchill, the latest for watch, but the first away is helping Ian Harvey, who is working the wheel. Below decks, Pam Bingham, Carol Salonen, and Mel Bond dance the dice to the tune of "Old Black Joe" (Haegert), Chief Officer, and the fastest man aboard. Jules Voleat is a great favorite especially with our sirens, Grace Chamberlain, Arlene Pratt, Jo-Ann Crawford, Wendy Ashby, and Mona Wolfe. Greg Clifford and Dorothy Jean Porter seem to have their minds on other vessels.

Division 12. Div. 12's Jazz Band conductor is majorette Doreen Rogers. Beating out that cool rhythm on the drums is cute Gwynne Garner. Those dreamy melodies are sung by music students Elaine Jennings and Donna Wallace who are accompanied by Pat Chatwin and her "Hot Piano." Cheering the band on is Sharon Tench, Div. 12's one and only cheerleader, while our brainier students Barrie Worthington, Marion Roome, and Diane Whitehead look on. Jokers Jane McKinnon and Carol Naunton keep things rolling while Mr. Bloomfield attempts to silence the "Talkative Trio," Diana Steward, Elaine Fisher, and Jocelyn Young. Also on the Bandwagon are dancers Heather Duncan and Fran Rigby, drama students Diana Drysdale, Barb Geddes, and Carol Graves, and sports lovers Bernice Tingstad, Donna Rutherford, and Bev Hughes.

Division 13. Div. 13, residing in Room 19 with Miss Sargent, is a gang of 33 well-informed kids. It has Waldo Skillings, one of our victorious Totems, as class rep., Wynnona Foster, as class president, and Jerry Devine as secretary-treasurer. For the musical side, Troy Broadley, Ted Dawson, Rosemary Easton, Bill Hastings and Ken Strong shine in the band, while Garrie McNaughton lends his support to the Jazz Club. The Girls' Choir and the Majorettes would be lost too, without our indispensable girls, Barbara Baker and Barbara Beddington. No class would be complete without brains, and when they were handed out Angie Mar and our Better-Late-Than-Never boy, Jerry, were sure around to get their share. All in all, when the 16 girls and 17 boys in Div. 13 combine, a better class couldn't be found.

Division 14. Skippered by Mr. Batey, our division has grown athletically as well as intellectually. The first mate of our "Celebrity Bridge" is Ed Kowalyk and our chief stokers are Walter Dakers, Del Johnston and "Chowalong" Goodmanson while perpetual occupants of the brig are Larry Montgomery and Bill Mason. Our crew is proud of our athletic prowess, for within our ranks we have Terry Lore, Tub Wooldridge, Ed Kowalyk, Tom "Hands" English, Rod Kirkham, and Bob Moore. While our ambitious deck swabbers, Jim Acken, Bill Wilson, and Russel Thompson, swab, Alex Doulis in the crow's nest and "radar" Chicko keep us from getting lost.

Division 15. Under the inspiring leadership of Mr. C. A. Trotter and class rep. Peggy Ball, the "Forty Fighting Females" of Div. 15 have been typing in vain since December to win back the challenge banner. The class drama students are Joan Smythe and Sharon Woods and the "A" student is Shirley Chatfield. Y-Teen members are Beverley Tocher and Roberta Leggett. The contribution to the majorettes is Gail McNab, while good publicity is insured by Suzanne Buttrey and Joan Kelly on the Camosunet. Figure skating stars are Deanna Bossom and Gail Saville and beauty is present in the form of Iris Barnes, Barbara Trage and Marilyn Leask. Registration is kept lively by fun-loving Pat Moulds and Marlene King.

Division 16. An all-girls class has been under the careful surveillance of Mr. Pluym for the past year. Filling the bill as class president and council rep. is Dorothy Geib. Our class wit is supplied by Yvonne Spencer, Norma

MacDonald and Joan Frees. The glamor department includes Gloria Milliken, Peggy Exton, Joy Lowery and Margaret Moysychyn. Not to be forgotten are our class musicians Verna Lee, Bev. Smith, Marlene White, and Gloria Milliken. Our contribution to the band is Donna Easton. All in all we have a pretty wonderful class.

Division 17. In this cabaret many of the distinguished may be found dining over their homework at 8:45 in the morning. The Manager of the club is Mr. Glover who employs such talented entertainers as Francis Keifer, Margaret Horne, Connie Sampson, and high tenor Bud McLaren. Employees association representative and able class president is Kathy Roberts, who along with the help of Loretta Mitchell and May Lim keeps the show rolling on schedule. Some able talent that is to be discovered belongs to Cheri Dunham, Heather Hamilton, and Elaine Grayston. Not to be overlooked are jugglers, Jack Wilson, Barry Carlow, Norm Smith and Gordon McPherson. Found bouncing high is the act of Alice Burke, Bryan Fawcett and Gordon Walker. Another colorful spectacle that would give the male fans satisfaction is the Seventeener's Quartette, composed of Joan Chapman, Janet Rawnsley, Ruth Hughes and Carol Cressy. Whoops! We almost forgot our better late-than-never girl, Maureen Donahue.

Division 18. Div. 18 is known for its many jokers such as Ray Sugden, Dave Patterson, and Andy Mowatt. We have such notable hockey players as Lawrence Churchill, Al Taylor, Gary Barlow, and Dave Gale. We are an all-male class and are usually kept on the straight and narrow by our home-room teacher Mr. Murphy. Our class president is Bob Harrison who is known far and wide as an amateur radio "ham." Don Deacon (who likes to be known as "one of de boys") is the class brain, and is always found to have the highest marks. Other notables in our class are Wally Crabbe, Don Arney, Dave Spedding, and Barrie Irwin (who strays at the sight of any and every girl). And last but not least we have our singing star Ron Jay.

GRADE TEN

Division 19. Ably led by Miss van Engel, Div. 19 has members with many varied talents. Among those taking part in sports are Sharon Armstrong, Margaret Stephen, Deanna Pizag, Rob Beckwith, Class rep. Sheila Clark, President Penny Druce and Vice-President Melvyn Hendra. Ralph Turner and Dorcas Whittaker provide the grey matter. Humorous Tommy Bourne and Janie Hardie give a light touch. Among the Band members are Gary Lewis, Dorcas Whittaker, Melvyn Hendra, Ralph Turner and Lloyd Evans. Georgina Pethard and Irene Dunnett are our other musicians. All the other students also contribute greatly to our Division.

Division 20. Div. 20 is under the competent guidance of Mr. Kay and helpers Steve Yarmie, president; Eileen Boychuk, secretary; and Valerie Parkin, Class Rep. Among the sports enthusiasts are basketball players Eileen Brasch, Ruth Anderson, Donna Campbell and Darlaine Dovey and soccer heroes John Devlin and Art Affleck. Talented musicians include pianist Daphne Holloway and harmonicist Lawrence Valiant. Myrna Fawcett displays her marching ability with the Victoria Girls' Drill Team and Jack Ellis puts his Friday nights to use by attending Sea Cadets. Quieter (?) members of the class are Nestor Halowski, Bruce Pollard, Lorne Salmond and Dave Mercer, while Alec Hancock and John Devlin are usually handy for a laugh or two.

Division 21. This fun-loving class loaded with talent registers with Mr. Mayne. Capable class president is Vivian Chan assisted by vice-president Pat Hillier and secretary Carol McIntyre. Sports enthusiasts are "cute" Nancy Allen, "artistic" Anne Frankham, and Vivian Chan. Barrie Hanslip and Bette "brains" Davies are the musicians, while leading fashions are displayed by Carole Slater and Ann Williamson. Also in this division are two of the Red Cross executive, Vanessa Wright and Glenda Berg. Humouring us are "better-late-than-never" Bob Huddleston and Mr. Mayne (of course) ! ! !

Division 22. Is that Div. 22 making that racket again? No, it's only the boys waiting for popular June Wellburn to arrive. By the way, this Div. is under the close watch of Mr. R. M. McLagan (poor fellow!). Our future musicians include Terry Varcoe (who is also our class rep.), Sharon Jay, Robert Moore, Bill Kermode, and Robert Lee. Our jazz club enthusiasts are Donna Cranton (wow!), Maureen McIvor, and Barbara Sheriff. Spencer Simmons, as well as being our class president, also finds time to be goalie for the "Juvenile All-Stars" hockey team. Our "better-late-than-never" student (there's one in every class), is Charlie Smith. Sharon Jay, and Jeanie Burns attend weekly swimming classes at the Crystal Garden.

Division 23. Div. 23 scores a first! We claim to be the first Vic High Tech. class with a female member—Nancy Walsh. Registering with Mr. F. Gower ("I've the cleanest shops in the school, thanks to my after-school 'volunteer janitors'"). We have Smiling Hunky Lowe for our President and Class Rep. George Delure and Charlie Andrews are our automotive experts and Ted Walton and Hunky Lowe provide most of the brain. John (Crazy) Lang is the class jester while Ken Fyfe and Roger Massey spend most of their time trying to talk their way out of late detentions. Our motto: "All for one; one for all."

Division 24. Keeping up the stiff pace with the rest of the classes is Div. 24. Under the stern guidance of Mr. G. Andrews, our class has had a successful year. Some of the well-known names are class rep., Dennis Connor, president, Ross Roskamp and Bob Malcolm.

Alpha Hi-Y

Under the leadership of President Ron MacKenzie and Sponsor Mr. Don Smyth, Alpha has had a busy year. Meetings, at which club business was discussed and guest speakers addressed the club, were held twice monthly at members' homes. To raise money, Alpha sold pop at basketball games and dances, and held an afternoon dance. All members have helped to make this a very successful year for Alpha.

Beta Hi-Y

With Mr. Lorimer as a most capable sponsor, Beta has had a very prosperous year. The club raised money through the sale of pop at basketball games and dances. Meetings were held every second week at the homes of the members. A few notable speakers enlivened some of the meetings. The executive consisted of: President, Bud Rutherford; Vice-President, Bill Abbott; Secretary, Buzz Harrison, and Treasurer, Dave Simson.

Under the advisorship of Miss M. Johnson, and the leadership of its executive, left to right secretary, Muriel Smith; chairmen, Grace Chamberlain and Barbara Sanson; president, Diane Roskelley; treasurer, Irene Foot; chairman, Barbara Jones; vice-president, Harlene Christensen, and absent chairman, Diana Drysdale, the Y-Teens have completed a successful year.

Listed under the heading of "work," have been such activities as, making and selling candy, cake and cheermops; selling Revels at the Basketball games; and collecting food for two Christmas hampers.

Among those activities listed under "fun" this year have been such things as, the "initiation"; the Co-ed dance, "Evening in Paris"; and the Provincial Mid-winter Conference, held in Victoria.

Those projects listed under "work" contain "fun," just as those listed under "fun" contain some "work."

Upon completion of this eventful year, the "chattering chicks in Navy and White," will present a gift to these Hallowed Halls.

Junior Y-Teens

Junior Y-Teens was newly formed this year for Grade 10 girls interested in joining Y-Teens in Grade 11.

Sponsored by Miss Johnson and Senior vice-president Harlene Christensen, the club planned many fund-raising activities, and hopes, at the end of the year, to buy a gift for the school.

The executive this year consisted of president Peggy Standen, vice-president Pearl Raels, secretary Val Parkin, treasurer Catherine Rae and committee heads Pat Petrie, Judy Rogers, Louise Touchings and Donna Campbell.

Future Teachers' Club

This is one of the largest clubs in the school having ninety to a hundred members. The president is Peter Williamson, vice-president Deanna Christianson, secretaries Barbara Salonen and Daphyne Chan. The club heard many interesting speakers, some of them at evening meetings. Earlier in the year, the Grade XII members of the club visited the elementary schools to observe teaching methods and in March they attended Normal School for a half day. Discussions were held with Mr. Dee and Mrs. Hodson on training and salaries. The sponsors, Miss Maxwell and Mr. D. Smith, have certainly helped to make the club beneficial for its enthusiastic members.

Discussion Club

Undoubtedly the most informal organization in the school, the Squares gathered in the Commercial Office to discuss every-day events and happenings. Nothing was too large or too small a topic for this talkative group, as they discussed everything from the possibility of a third World War to the question of how to improve Victoria.

A special vote of thanks is due to Mr. Heywood for unselfishly giving up his lunch hours to keep the discussions from getting out of hand.

Radio Club

Composed of enthusiastic would-be script writers and announcers, this club has worked diligently to perfect a number of scripts for presentation. Working in conjunction with a local radio station they have steadily plugged for a programme but have as yet not realized their goal.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Tervo and headed by president Harlene Christensen and vice-president Nassa Raels they met Thursdays during the noon hour. The club made a definite step forward this year when they purchased their own club pins.

Jazz Club

"Let Joy be unrefined" could well be the motto of this group of modern music lovers, who used their Monday noon hours to listen to the madcap rhythms of such masters of music as Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw and Tommy Dorsey.

President and chief disc-jockey Ian Thow literally burned up the turntables with some of the hottest platters ever put on wax. With the help of other officers—notably Muriel Smith, Garry McNaughton, Marion Metzger and music supplied by Joe Moore several live sessions were arranged which were attended and enjoyed by the whole school.

All in all, it was in the words of "Shakespeare" a "real cool year."

Camosunet

Camosunet went to press this year as the most [illegible] Vic High paper ever, thanks to Editor-in-Chief Harlene Christensen and Brian Howard who were assisted by Mr. S. Murphy and his [illegible] of news hounds.

Business was handled by Irene Foot who, with the help of Division 7, managed to keep the Camosunet on its financial feet.

Many new columns appeared on the Camosunet's pages this year, but the familiar ones such as "Sam Simon's Diary" and 'Beaux and Arrows" from Darlene's flashing pen and "Class Presidents" by Ken Lansdowne, were met as old friends by their many readers.

Among the new columns making printing history was "Scene in Passing" which materialized from the busy brain of Diane Roskelley and soared to popularity right away.

What to wear and where to wear it was handled by Vassa Raels, Barbara Sanson, and Margot Thomson while in the sports world, Pam Golby and Jim Taylor kept track of our heroes and heroines. Incidentally, Jim also did sports write-ups for a rival paper, the Colonist.

Junior Red Cross

Under the leadership of Gail Prette, capably assisted by vice-president Vanessa Wright and secretary Glenda Berg, the Victoria High Red Cross has had a successful year. A total of $165 was raised through candy sales, fund drives, coat checking, and gum fines. This money was used to buy Christmas presents for the D.V.A. Hospital veterans, and to increase the local fund to buy a child's wheelchair, a hand loom for polio patients and health kits for Korea and Greece.

Thanks are due to the Calamity Players for their advertising and to the whole student body for their generous response to fund drives.

Inspired by President Keith Murray and under the watchful eye of their sponsor Mr. T. W. CHRISTMAS PLAY "The Robe"

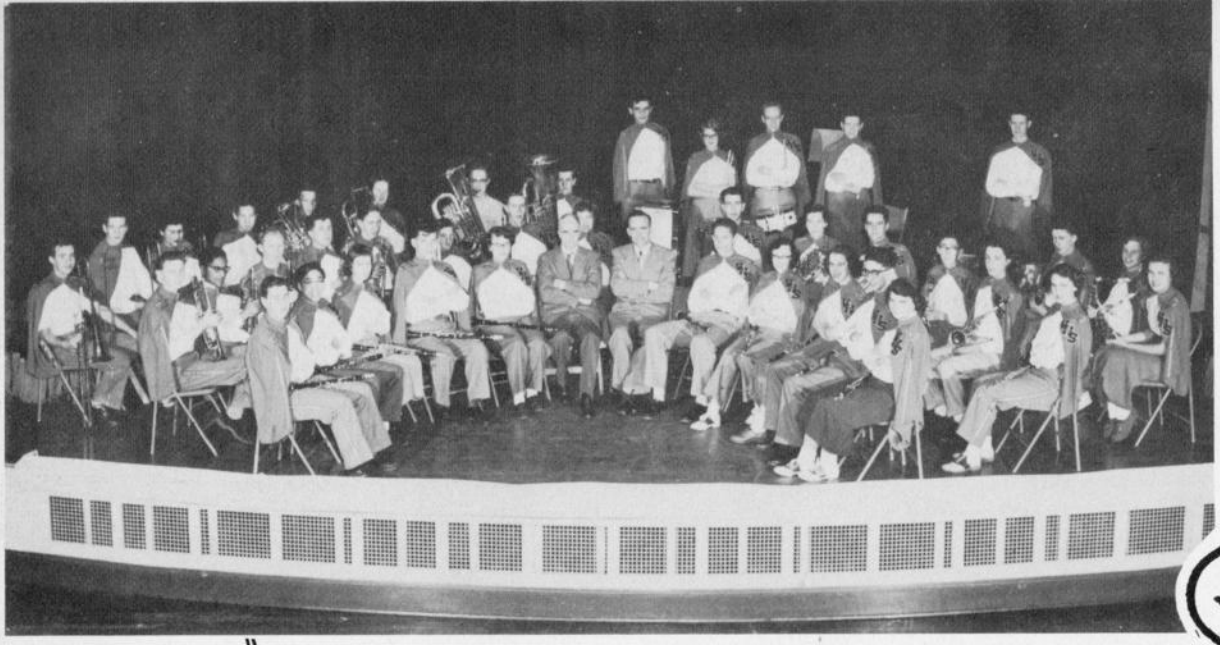
1. "Look at that handsome one in the front row!"
2. "Boy, is he loaded!"
3. "Honest, officer, I didn't touch it!"
4. "Don't rile me, buddy, don't rile me!"
5. "Won't rub off; won't smear off; won't kiss off!"
6. "I brush my teeth three times a day . . ."
7. "Aw, who're you trying to kid?"
8. "How're you fixed for blades?"
9. "Stand and deliver!!"
10. "This cotton pickin' robe's too tight!"
11. "Hooray, nobody goofed their lines!"
12. "It's the latest thing in togas!"
13. "You'll marry this guy, or else!"
14. "Egad! Women!!"
15. "Boy, what an ad!"
16. "Take the Mayne Train."
17. "He gets all the women, darn it!"
18. "But, Sir, I had my homework done!"
19. "Henry, where have you been all night?"
20. "Sorry, son, I'm afraid we'll have to drill."
21. "Man, dig that crazy hat!"
22. "That was some party!"
23. "I just adore men with beards!"
24. "Anybody here need a preacher?"
25. "Who put sand in my coffee?"
26. "I can't remember my lines!!"
27. "I spy, with my little eye . . ."

Once again Vic High scored a homer with its annual dramatic presentation. This year it was "The Robe"—the first play in three years—chosen for its challenge to all concerned with its production. Selected in early October, the twenty-seven member cast began rehearsals a week later. The superb acting of the cast; the teamwork and co-operation of the student committees and the excellent "quick changes" and lighting and sound effects of the backstage crews, all under the general direction of Mr. Mayne, combined to meet this challenge to perfection. This was confirmed by the appreciation of the audience in the packed auditorium at each performance. Only five teachers assisted in the production, another indication of the responsibility placed on students participating. For many years to come "The Robe" will remain etched in the memory of all who contributed to its success.



Band Report

Sky-rocketing ever upward, the fine reputation and standard the band has set for itself is not going to be easily maintained! B.C. Champions two years ago, this group of young people retained for the sixth consecutive year the Victoria Championship by chalking up marks of 88, 89, and 90 in the recent Musical Festival.

The credit due Mr. Grant for his unselfish hard work can not be over-emphasized. Nor can we forget Mr. Hunter's thoughtful contribution of much of his time. Equally deserving of thanks is Peter Williamson, band president, who, through his never tiring efforts, saw to it that all ran smoothly.

To remain a high point among the year's events will be the sparkling concert of March 2nd, but those delightful assemblies won't be forgotten either.

A four-day trip to New Westminster for the B.C. Band Clinic saw an end to their 54-55 agenda.

Orchestra Report

In spite of a sad depletion in the 'cello and violin sections of the orchestra (it seems this is one organization which prefers "strings attached"), a most successful year has been completed.

In the fall, a performance at the Teachers' Convention saw Joanne Dawson featured in the "Swedish Rhapsody," a work for piano and orchestra which brought high acclaim to the group.

Miss Hopgood, after returning from a year of studying abroad, also organized a number of ensembles to give more invaluable experience to the young musicians.

The orchestra also contributed a great deal to the Spring Concert.

Choir

Under the direction of Miss N. Douglas, the 50-voiced choir has made numerous appearances this year. In the Victoria Music Festival they won three entries of the four in which they competed and during the Easter holidays they journeyed to Vancouver where they sang at the Teachers' Convention. In their first attempt at Grand Opera, the choir was highly successful when they presented highlights from Bizet's "Carmen" in May. Accompanying the group throughout the year were pianists, Jo-Anne Dawson and Bruce Dutton.

Senior "A" Rugby

Under the guidance of Mr. J. Andrews, the Senior "A" rugby team once again regained the Howard Russell Cup.

Experiencing only fair success during exhibition play, the team lost twice to Shawnigan Lake School and once to University School, but defeated University School in their first encounter.

In Howard Russell Cup play the Vic. High squad won the first two games, thereby winning the trophy for the second time in the last three years. However, in Kiwanis Cup play Victoria High was defeated by Vic. College.

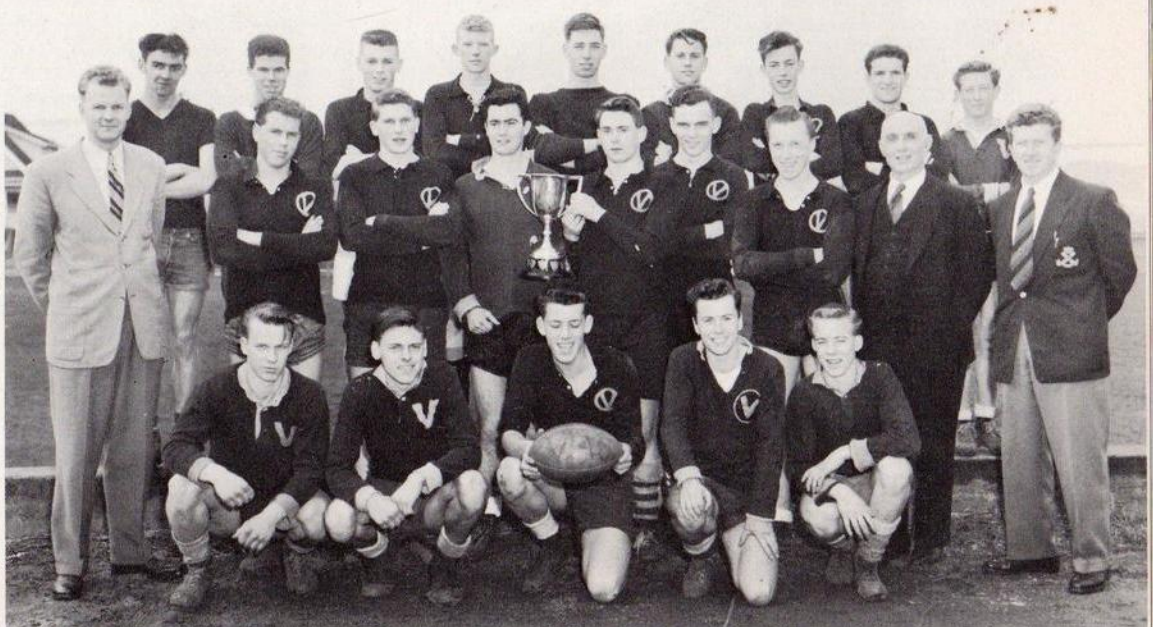
During the Russell Cup series they were assisted by Ian MacDougall and Bob McKee.



Totems

Bob Tomlinson — Centre of Vancouver Island and Inter-Scholastic all-star teams. Has an easy hook shot and can also score from the outside.

Waldo Skillings — Forward on Vancouver Island All-Star team. Has a deadly jump shot especially from the side.

Tom English — Guard. Most valuable player in Vancouver Island tournament and twice elected all-star. Can drive past almost anyone.

Bill Abbott—Captain and guard on this year's team. He is a strong floor player and knows just what to do with the ball.

Ed Kowalyk—Guard. The only southpaw on the team. Has a nice one hander and is a strong defensive player.

Bud Rutherford—Forward. A real hustler, Bud is a great play-maker. Prefers the two-handed set shot.

Doug Jones — Forward. Has a deadly one-hander from the outside. For his first year under Mr. Andrews, Doug has fitted in very well.

Denny Perry—Plays either centre or forward. "Harvey" can fake anyone out of his shoes.

Jim Leask—Guard. Jim is one of the coolest Ball players there are. Has a nice fade away jump-shot.

Ken McCulloch—Forward. A strong rebounder with an ability to handle the ball.

Terry Lore—Guard. What he lacks in height he makes up for in hustle. He will come into his own next year.

Brian Wooldridge—Forward. Has a nice jump shot. Will be awfully hard to beat next year when his knee heals.

George Andrews — Coach for the past four years. Has certainly brought a lot of credit upon himself and the team.

Basketball Tournaments

The fifth annual Vancouver Island basketball tournament was staged in Courtenay High School, with eight strong teams competing. For the second consecutive year Victoria High received the Times Trophy emblematic of the Island basketball championship as well as receiving individual all-star awards and the "best player in the tournament" award.

The final game this year was the fifth game with Alberni in the past four years in which the margin of victory was only one point.

In March the Island champs journeyed to Vancouver to compete for the British Columbia Championships. After arriving at U.B.C. at eleven p.m. and not finding sleeping accommodations until nearly midnight, the team could not seem to click on their shooting the following day against a tight zone defense put up by Delta High. However, with a will to show everybody which was the best team in B.C., they redeemed themselves with a brilliant exhibition of shooting, trouncing a highly rated Vancouver College team by twenty-four points. The team having regained its confidence, won the consolation round by defeating Trail and Penticton to wind up the tournament in fifth place.

Full of vigor and vitality, this year's cheerleaders—(left to right) Sharon Tench, Joe Frackson, Irene Foot, Danny Wong and Barbara Richardson have really kept our school activities well supported. Out on the field or in the gym, the 'leaders have led the spectators in helping to bring honours to Vic High.

Majorettes

JEANNIE BARWELL — as Captain of the '54-55 Majorettes, smiling Jeannie has shown her leadership and originality when making those intricate Friday night routines.

BARB BEDDINGTON — a new-comer this year to the Majorettes, she will be one of the best next year.

WILMA BOULTON— Wilma, of the "shining black hair" and friendly outlook, is a tribute to the Majorettes.

GLADYS BOYCHUK—anybody want to hear a joke? just ask "Gladdie," the girl who added the laughs to those 8 o'clock practices.

LORRAINE FRAMPTON—She is one of the quieter girls, but also one of the best.

PAT GILLINGS — (Drummer) "Patty," who has just learned to drum this year, has done a wonderful job.

MARGARET HORNE — The gal with the beautiful tresses, Margaret is next year's Captain.

VONDA HUTTON — "Cute as a button is our Miss Hutton," especially in her little white skirt.

IRENE JONES—another new-comer to the Majorettes, petite Irene has added her smiles and charm this year.

GEORGINA LIM—snappy and cute, Georgie is one of the shorter members of the team.

GAIL McNAB—"tall, slender and lovely" would best describe this oldtimer to the Majorettes.

JUDY POTTS—One of the taller Majorettes, she has a lot of "personality."

DOREEN ROGERS—A compact combination of personality and "brains" is dependable Doreen.

BARBARA SALONEN—This peppy gal is the girl with all the bounce and go.

Dick McLaren—Dick was our playing coach who always had a word for everybody. Congratulations on a job well done.

Bill Abbott—Third year on squad; always best when the chips were down.

Ed Kowalyk—Clever winger who set up many good plays. He will be back next year.

Don MacIntosh—One of the hardest workers on the team and it paid off in goals.

Boys' Senior House Basketball

A great deal of pleasure was obtained by the fans in watching their favorite gladiators fight it out on the gym floor during the noon hours.

This was the best year house basketball has ever seen. After a hard-fought season, House II retained its title as the best in senior Boys. B. Hitch, C. Foster and T. Hardy were the main reasons for its victory. House I led by Art Chiko ended up second with House IV and III battling out for the last two places. A word of appreciation for their fine work goes to Mr. Glover and his capable assistants.

Boys' Junior Rep. Basketball

This year only one team was entered in the city league. The team members were chosen from the Junior Inter House league and were capably handled by Mr. D. Lorimer and coaches Doug Jones and Tom English. After getting a slow start the boys managed to finish strong and wound up tied for first with Oak Bay at the end of the season.

Team members were: Jim Lee, Mel Bond, Doug Barber, Ed Eillit, Don Heywood, Bill McKee, Jack Wilson, George Vickery, Bob Brown, Dick Austin and Robin Farquhar.

1. Vic High and Oak Bay High
2. Esquimalt High
3. Mt. View High

Boys' Junior House Basketball

These tightly fought games provided some commendable noon hour entertainment for fans as well as the participants. It was House I that led the way in the league ending the year with a good margin. House IV took the runner-up slot with House III close on their back. House II was not very far back and was quite capable of ending second except for a few bad breaks.

Rep. Grass Hockey

Sponsored by Miss Sutton, the grass hockey team has had a busy year. Captained by Ruth Orton and managed by Pat Harris, Vic High placed second to Oak Bay for the May Tulley Shield. Members of the team were Pam Bingham, Susie Butt, Gail Walsh, Barbara Mann, Barbara Salonen, Lillian Davies, Yvonne Corbin, Bernice Tingstad, Maureen Moore, Laurena Pellet, Ruth Orton, Aileen Dyke, and Nancy Allen.

Cross Country

Once again Mr. Hartley's boys, probably the hardest working group in the school, have had a most successful year. They have been consistent winners in the past few years and this year was no exception. Of the twelve races held this year, the Victoria High School Cross-Country team has won ten. They lost the Lower Mainland Crown and Vancouver Island Crown in very close races against senior opposition, but gained the B.C. High School Crown (Ian Frazer breaking the old record by 16 seconds!). The fire-balls who broke the tapes nearly every time were Jim Pickup and Ian Frazer (a new Zatopek), while John Gilliland, Dugald Macfadyen, and Wilbert Jay came in close behind. The team's prospects for next year look very good with such promising runners as Barry Hagen, Norman Hamilton, Ray Watkins, Dave Mar, Barry Gough and Gary Cowley.

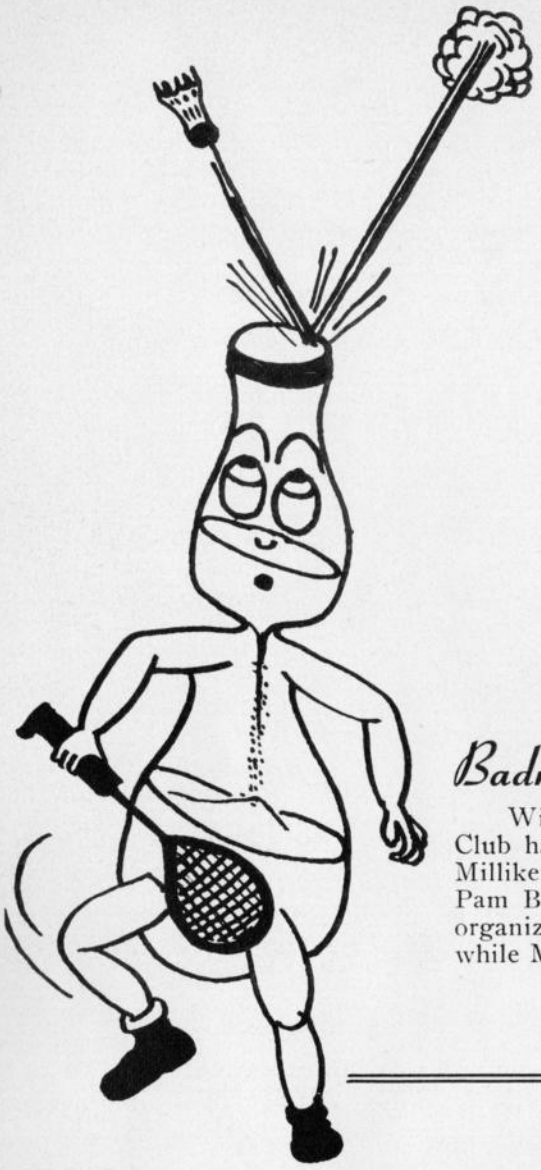
Swimming

In two of the best attended Galas ever held, Vic High swimmers turned in a very creditable performance.

House III won the Inter-House Gala for the second year in a row, as they edged past House II in a very close combat. House IV and I finished 3rd and 4th respectively.

Vic High didn't fare quite so well in the Inter-High Gala, however, losing out to Oak Bay High for the City Championship.



Badminton

With two new coaches, Mr. Pluym and Mr. Heywood, the Badminton Club has had an active year. President Georgina Lim, Vice-President Pat Milliken, Secretary-Treasurer Ruth Orton and executive members, Art Wild, Pam Bingham and Terry Robertson kept the games and tournaments well organized. Susie Butt took the laurels for the Girls' Open Championship, while Mike Stewart defeated Art Wild to take the Open Boys'.

Table Tennis

Although there was no Inter-High School Tournament this year, the Vic High Table Tennis Club had another successful season.

Guided by President Wilbert Jay, Vice-President Susie Butt, and Secretary George Faerber, the 40-member club held two school tournaments.

In the preliminary tournament, George Faerber defeated Richard Kelsall; and Dave Gale won the Club Championship in the finals with a win over Gary Bishop.

Tumbling Club

Newly inaugurated this year, the Vic. High Tumbling Club proved such a great success that plans are being made to increase the scope of the activity next term.

Coached by Mr. Don Smyth, the group provided the half-time entertainment at most of the basketball games, turning in top notch exhibitions of both straight tumbling and box work.

Among the more outstanding members of the squad were Brian Mann, Bill Martin, and Phil Garside.

"The Magic Month"

Yes, it's coming, it'll soon be here.
You'll graduate in June this year.
Oh yes, it's funny when you recall
You didn't care if you made it at all.
Any place was better than school,
You were tired of following rule.
Today or tomorrow it was all the same,
Vic High School was just a name.

But now it's here and you want it to last,
You're concerned with your future not your past,
After this you'll be on your own.
For the next few years you'll walk alone.
Oh! there'll be people to help and advise,
But you're growing up, now you realize
Once you've graduated with your class,
Your future like a test, you must fail or pass,
You can't go back, here's your chance,
Will you falter or fall or will you advance?
Yes, this is your night, now it's here,
This is it, your graduating year.
At last it's here and you're ready to go,
Your way is clear and now you know
That deep down in your heart and mind
You'll be leaving part of you behind.

New World

Sunset, and morning star,
And after that the world!
Behind, the joy of school days
Before, new joys unfurled.

Twilight and lull at dawn
And after that the morn!
Past, the days of childhood,
Ahead, bright days not born.

Memory, and future hope,
Before us lie new fears!
Behind us lies the happiness
Of twelve short, fun-packed years.

Ending and beginning,
From old to new again!
We grads will pass from school days
To enter life's broad lane.

Sunset, and evening star,
And after, joy and strife!
Behind us lies a vanished day,
Before, a broadening life.

WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES FURTHER

You May Become a Student

If you can go to class and be not late,
If you have all your homework to relate,
If you study hard you soon may state
With modest pride, "I did matriculate."
If you can keep your notebooks up to date,
Nor run in corridors, nor stay up late,
Nor speak to girls, but keep sedate
You may avoid the blows of unkind fate.
If this you do you may become a student,
And join the ranks of the most lofty prudent.
If you go to college and complete your work,
And difficult tasks you do not shirk
You will not end up poor and stupid,
But educated, a mark for "purblind cupid."

GRADE 10— Continued from Page 28

To keep us up in the sporting world we have such names as: D. Stone, R. Caldwell and L. Eastwood while the rest of the class keeps our marks well above average.

Division 25. This division is an all-male class with Mr. Don Smyth at the wheel. Bill Nevill is our Class-rep. At Soccer workouts, you can find Ed Ilott and Frank Hallam, while Norm Dicks turns out for basketball. Our two ping-pong players are Ricky Wells and Russel Copeland. The car enthusiast of the class is Norm Moss. Every class has its clowns, and we have them in the persons of Ed Ilott and Richard Game.

Division 26. Leading this div. we have Mr. Chatfield. We are truly an exceptional div. in that we have twenty-three boys and only seven girls! Our class president is Barry Lang, who is also a very good artist. We are represented at the students' council by Dick Austin, while our top-notch class secretary is Pat Hornby. On the musical side, we find our violinist Audrey Peck, and our glee-clubist Doug De Wolfe. We expect great things of our athlete, Gordon Hansen at the track meet. Consistently making those "fashionable" late entrances is Peter Ullock, who has run up a record so far. Gary Menzel appears to be our philosopher, and our good-humour man is Bud Hudson.

Division 27. Under Miss Tervo, our all-girl div. has progressed by leaps and bounds this year. Ably assisting Miss Tervo is our dancing class rep. and president, Jill Pinniger. We are well-represented in the music world of Vic High by Pat Pye, Leona Dunham, Joan McEwen, Violet Smith, Betty Wong, and Clare Chapman, while we expect to make an entry into the athletic section with Jo-Ann Brown. Our class even has a majorette in the person of Vonda Hutton. Of course, no class is complete without its brains, and we are no exception.

Taking over in that field are Barbara Martin and Noreen Galbraith.

Division 28. Warming up under the watchful eye of Mrs. Hodson, Spaceship 28 is Piloted by Myrna Smith and Co-piloted by Joann Fenwick. The controls are in good hands with Eva Nipp and Bertha Chan. Before leaving the ground we are entertained by sports lovers—Lynn McNab, Maureen Perry, Barbara Mann and Jean Harris. A floor show is given by Johanna McNair, Jean Crust, Alma Hayden and Joy Saunders. We have a few songs by Sonia Crocker, Carole Rawlings and Francis Hartshorn. Our fun loving passengers Gail Potter, Jette Jorgenson, Noreen Wilkinson, Grace Carson and Rosalia Spokely make quite a noise before our take-off. Altogether we think the year has been a successful one.

Division 29. Miss Maxwell is the head of this group of gay gals. (And incidentally we have it on good authority that we are one of the nicest registration classes she has ever had.) Class rep. is Judy Rogers. Next in line is Dorothea McDonald, our class president, who also plays in the band. The 'ladies of fashion' are Donna Magrath and Vivian Andrews while Margaret Osborne has a knack for hair-dos. Pat Ross keeps us well informed on the latest in records and Sylvia McGillivray and Pat Neilson entertain with their canary-like voices. Our only surviving athlete is Betty Mae King who also does a very good job of entertaining us with her special talent, dancing. Like horses? Ask Vivian Andrews! Gail Prette leads the Red Cross Club. This class, I'm sure you'll agree, has everything,—except boys!

Division 30. What's thet you say, young feller? Div. 30. Oh yaas; thet were way back in the good old days, I figure. We was a pretty sassy class, but a bloke name of Andrews, Mr. Joe, used to keep us toeing th' mark wi' them rules o' his. Fine figger o' a man. A coot li'l thing name of—Ah, what wuz her name? Peggy Standen, wuz class president and rep. Have a rekellekshun she had her finger in the Jr. Y-Teen pie. Rekon she were president thar. Shore had sports. T'warn't long ago. Al Hayton and Mike Hanlon kicked some kind o' ball around. Had some band fellers, too—Phil McNeil, Art Bayne, and Blair McLean. Then thar wuz the "Robe." Young guy name o' Tony Maynard played "Caligula." Pretty good, too. We shore wuz a 'neat' class thet year!

Who taught some of the grads history.
They laughed when they should,
And tried to be good

Who never did nothin' but eat.

He would do up his shoes,
But alas, he could not reach his feet.
